SENATE OVERRIDES ELECTION BILL VETO

The Governor this morning sent to the Legislature a message vetoing Senate Bill 39, the election law bill. It reads in part as follows:

Herewith I return Senate Bill No. 13, which I am unable to approve. The chief change made in the law is the provision for one blanket ballot which shall be arranged so that the candidates' names are printed in party columns, under a party title, instead of being arranged alphabetically and without the party designation, as is now done.
